Comments: Sirs, I am sure you are aware of the importance of the site that this application refers to. It should be noted that the legacy of Colin Chapman and the Lotus marque still resonates today in the world of motoring and motor sport. There has been no greater influence on Britain's Motor Sport Heritage than Lotus and this should be recognised by the maintaining the buildings that Lotus occupied in it's early days. There have been attempts to raise money to make the building some type of visitor attraction which have yet to come to fruition but once demolished the idea would clearly be no more. You should therefore carefully consider your decision.
