Comments: At least one of the buildings scheduled for demolition is in Haringey's register of locally listed buildings. A blue plaque has been installed at the site with Haringey's full co-operation. It would make a mockery of the conservation process to allow the demolition to go ahead. I object to the overall plan because of this. Surely it must be possible to devise an alternative scheme which preserves the very prominent Lotus showroom on a busy one way traffic system, to the benefit of conservation, Haringey and Jewson's.
