Zanelli Marco

From: Planning Support
Subject: FW: Comment Received from Public Access

Application Reference No. : HGY/2016/0225
Site Address: 389 Green Lanes London N4 1EU
Comments by: andy
From:
      99 umfreville rd

      london

      n4 1rz
Phone:
Email:
Submission: Objection
Comments: hi, my house runs parallel at the back of these shops as well as 389 green lanes we have had many problem in the past emviromental health have come out to see also niose level guys have come we have a big problem there with rats because they dump there rubbish out into the alleyway when they are not allowed as we all have access to the allyway we recently had the fire brigade come because there is oil dumped out there combined with curboard from the greengrocers dumping there stuff out there as well, so the dangers are real they could kill us wile we are sleeping as for noise if this licence is granted they come out of the back of there shop to smoke talk or just leave there door open washing cutlery ect therefore creating noise how are we meant to sleep and wake up rested to go to work this is very stressfull for as even there instractors flu working all night create big problems vibrations. please email me if there is anything more you may need.