

Tottenham Hale MDU

Proposal

The existing single storey modular unit housing the MDU staff is to be extended by 3 bays (9m) on the north face of the building.

The extension will use the same palette of materials of the existing building.

In using the same materials and being of the same height and width, the extension will soon be indistinguishable from the existing building.

From the above photograph, the building will be extended into the foreground by three bays.