What was the original application type?

Householder planning permission

For the purpose of calculating fees, which of the following best describes the original development type?

- ☒ Householder development: Development to an existing dwelling-house or development within its curtilage
- ☐ Other: Anything not covered by the above category

Non-Material Amendment(s) Sought

Please describe the non-material amendment(s) you are seeking to make

Windows in the front bay to be replaced - new timber framed windows to omit transoms that are part of existing windows
Size of proposed window openings on rear first floor and rear dormer increased.
The line of proposed rear extension increased so that it matches the existing rear extension at the neighbouring property (no9). This would be an increase of about 40cm on the approved rear extension.
Roof over rear extension to be flat (sloped section adjacent to house to be omitted)

Please state why you wish to make this amendment

We are aiming to improve the thermal performance of the property. The replacement front bay windows will have less frame which is more efficient. We do not think it will affect the harmony of the front elevation.
Lining the rear extension to match the neighbouring property seems like a better and less disruptive line to choose.
The rear of the house has a long view east across London and is not overlooked. The owners requested larger windows for additional daylight.
The sloped section of roof over the rear extension proposed in the earlier application was designed to match the existing roof over rear extension at neighbouring property. When we look at this in detail, the size of the roof would only allow minimal sized rooflights that would have appeared small in kitchen/ dining space. We do not think that the sloped element of roof was a crucial part of the design.

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
