Hi Valerie,

Yes, that is fine now.

Many thanks

Ann

Hi Valerie,

Thank you for the update and if the other information could be provided once it becomes available, that would be appreciated.

Kind regards

Ann

Hi Ann

In response to your comments below refer to the attached revised Delivery and Servicing Plan, including the revised GF plan to show the correct bins

The applicants have also provided the following response

Regarding the commercial refuse strategy, note the planning drawings didn't show a designated space for the commercial bin so we understand these will be stored within the commercial area. This internal area will not be detailed by Formation as their scope is shell and core only.

Many thanks
