Good Afternoon.

The tree surgeon advised that it is dead underneath the ivy which has left some branches/ limbs weak and/or split.

Hope this helps.

Best Regards,
Debbie

We have now been appointed to fell a tree at this address which is in danger of falling in to one or more of the surrounding gardens.

It is completely covered in ivy and a very bad specimen.

We would of course advise that another, more suitable species be planted in the location once felled.

I have attached some pics and a video FYI.

Many thanks.
Best Regards,
Debbie.
