RECOMMENDATION

Permitted Development

DETAILS OF PROPOSAL

Certificate of lawfulness for a proposed outbuilding in the rear garden of the property. It would have a width of 7.4m, a depth of 3.9m and pitched crown roof with rooflights on the crown. The roof would have an eaves height of between 1.9 and 2.1m and a maximum height of between 2.8 and 3.0m. It would have a GIA of approximately 24sqm. It would be located 2 metres from the nearest boundary of the property.

SITE DESCRIPTION

Large three storey, detached house. The property is located within the Highgate conservation area. There is no article 4 direction reacted to the conservation area. The property is not listed. There are a number of mature trees located in the rear garden. There are no TPOs.

PLANNING HISTORY

HGY/2023/1416 – Planning application for the installation of 3 condenser units (2 heat pumps, 1 air conditioning unit) in the rear garden. Application pending.

HGY/2023/1265 – Application of a certificate of lawfulness for the proposed installation of 21 solar panels to the property (7 to the side roof slope, 6 to the rear roof slope and 6 to the flat roof of the side extension. Application pending.

CON/2022/0281 – Notification of works to trees in conservation area. No objection recorded. These works included the removal of a twin stemmed ash tree (T8) due to its proximity to the proposed outbuilding.

HGY/2021/0048 - Planning permission granted for the demolition of an existing ground and first floor timber extension and side garage, and the erection of a new single storey side extension, a part single/part two-storey rear extension, erection of a rear dormer extension, the installation of 2 side and 1 rear rooflights, and the replacement of the existing entrance canopy. Decided 30.05.2021. A number of pre-commencement conditions attached to this permission have recently been discharged along with the approval of a non-material amendment.

RELEVANT PLANNING LEGISLATION

The application has been made under section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 and relevant amendments. This not a planning application but instead the applicant seeks confirmation that the proposed development is lawful. As such, the impact of the proposed development of the neighbour's amenities or the character of the area cannot be taken into consideration for this submission.

Class E – buildings etc incidental to the enjoyment of a dwellinghouse

A Certificate of Lawfulness for provision within the curtilage of the dwellinghouse of any building or enclosure, swimming or other pool required for a purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse as such, or the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of such a building or enclosure or a container used for domestic heating purposes for the storage of oil or liquid petroleum gas can be issued if the proposal meets all the criteria under The Town and Country Planning (Generally Permitted Development) (Amendment) (No.2) (England) Order 2015 – Part 1, Class E 'buildings etc incidental to the enjoyment of a dwellinghouse'.

The current proposal will be assessed against these requirements as follows:

E.1. Development is not permitted by Class E if —

(a) permission to use the dwellinghouse as a dwellinghouse has been granted only by virtue of Class M, N, P or Q of Part 3 of this Schedule (changes of use);

Complies.

(b) the total area of ground covered by buildings, enclosures and containers within the curtilage (other than the original dwellinghouse) would exceed 50% of the total area of the curtilage (excluding the ground area of the original dwellinghouse);

Complies.

(c) any part of the building, enclosure, pool or container would be situated on land forward of a wall forming the principal elevation of the original dwellinghouse;

Complies.

(d) the building would have more than a single storey;

Complies.

(e) the height of the building, enclosure or container would exceed;

(i) 4 metres in the case of a building with a dual-pitched roof,

(ii) 2.5 metres in the case of a building, enclosure or container within 2 metres of the boundary of the curtilage of the dwellinghouse, or

(iii) 3 metres in any other case;

Complies.

As confirmed in the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government's Technical Guidance on permitted development rights for householders (September 2019), if any part of the building, container or enclosure is within 2 metres of the boundary of the curtilage of the house, then the height limit for the total development is restricted to 2.5 metres if it is to be permitted development.

(f) the height of the eaves of the building would exceed 2.5 metres;

Complies.

(g) the building, enclosure, pool or container would be situated within the curtilage of a listed building;

Complies.

(h) it would include the construction or provision of a veranda, balcony or raised platform;

Complies.

(I) it relates to a dwelling or a microwave antenna;

Complies.

(j) the capacity of the container would exceed 3,500 litres.

Complies.

E.2. In the case of any land within the curtilage of the dwellinghouse which is within (a) an area of outstanding natural beauty; (b) the Broads; (c) a National Park; or (d) a World Heritage Site, development is not permitted by Class E if the total area of ground covered by buildings, enclosures, pools and containers situated more than 20 metres from any wall of the dwellinghouse would exceed 10 square metres.

Complies.

E.3. In the case of any land within the curtilage of the dwellinghouse which is article 2(3) land, development is not permitted by Class E if any part of the building, enclosure, pool or container would be situated on land between a wall forming a side elevation of the dwellinghouse and the boundary of the curtilage of the dwellinghouse.

Complies.

Interpretation of Class E - E.4. For the purposes of Class E, "purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse as such" includes the keeping of poultry, bees, pet animals, birds or other livestock for the domestic needs or personal enjoyment of the occupants of the dwellinghouse.

Complies.

The size of the outbuilding is considered to meet the above interpretation.

CIL

The increase in internal floor area would not exceed 100sqm and therefore the proposal is not liable for the Major's CIL charge.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

The proposed outbuilding is considered to comply with all the relevant restrictions and conditions set out above. The proposed development therefore does constitute permitted development by virtue of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class E of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 and is therefore considered to be lawful.

RECOMMENDATION

Grant Certificate for the following reason(s):

The proposed development constitutes permitted development by virtue of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class E of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 and is considered to be lawful.
