Class E – buildings etc incidental to the enjoyment of a dwellinghouse

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

It is noted that permission has been granted for a single storey rear extension:

HGY/2022/2579 - Erection of single storey extension which extends beyond the rear wall of the original house by 6m, for which the maximum height would be 3m and for which the height of the eaves would be 3m.

And a certificate of lawfulness issued for a two-storey rear extension:

HGY/2022/3481 - Certificate of lawfulness for the erection of two storey rear extension with rear and side roof extension.

Were each of these structures including the outbuilding subject to this application, to be built, the completed structure would serve as a large extension to the rear of the property meaning that the outbuilding would no longer be considered an outbuilding, therefore would not be considered as permitted development under Class E. The outbuilding as proposed cannot be constructed under permitted development if extant permissions are carried out and would be subject to enforcement.

The proposed development constitutes permitted development by virtue of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class E of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 and is considered to be lawful.
