Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

We would like to construct a simple bike shed in the front patio, in front of the house.

I have a hidden disability (neurodivergent, mental ill health) and I know that improving my access to exercise and the outdoors will be a simple way of supporting my health. Having a bike shed will enable me to cycle regularly, with the safety and security of a location to store the bike.

Has the work already been started without consent?

☐ Yes

☒ No

This is what Eunice said via an email:

"Bike sheds can be considered outbuildings, and guidance on outbuilding development can be found on the Planning Portal here.

The above link outlines the criteria for outbuildings as permitted development – i.e. where no planning approval is required. However, please note that the bike shed cannot be constructed in the front garden (forward of the front façade of your dwelling) without planning permission."

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
