Class A.2. Requirement

In the case of a dwellinghouse on article 2(3) land, development is not permitted by Class A if—

- (a) it would consist of or include the cladding of any part of the exterior of the dwellinghouse with stone, artificial stone, pebble dash, render, timber, plastic or tiles;
- (b) the enlarged part of the dwellinghouse would extend beyond a wall forming a side elevation of the original dwellinghouse; or
- (c) the enlarged part of the dwellinghouse would have more than one storey and extend beyond the rear wall of the original dwellinghouse.

Complies Yes

Development is permitted by Class A subject to the following conditions:

A.3. Conditions

- (a) The materials used in any exterior work (other than materials used in the construction of a conservatory) shall be of a similar appearance to those used in the construction of the exterior of the existing dwellinghouse.

Comment The proposed materials shall match the appearance of the existing materials. Complies Yes

- (b) Any upper-floor window located in a wall or roof slope forming a side elevation of the dwellinghouse shall be—

 - (ii) non-opening unless the parts of the window which can be opened are more than 1.7 metres above the floor of the room in which the window is installed;

Comment No side-facing windows are proposed Complies Yes

- (c) Where the enlarged part of the dwellinghouse has more than one storey, the roof pitch of the enlarged part shall, so far as practicable, be the same as the roof pitch of the original dwellinghouse.

Comment The enlarged part of the dwellinghouse would not have more than one storey Complies Yes

5. CIL Applicable

The increase in internal floor area would not exceed 100sqm and therefore the proposal is not liable for the Major's CIL charge.

6. Summary and Conclusion

The proposed development constitutes permitted development by virtue of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 and is considered to be lawful.

The proposal includes the demolition of an existing brick shed and short section of wall to the rear of the terrace, but the building is less than 115 cubic metres and the wall is less than 2m tall; therefore their removal does not require permission.
