

| Door Ref.           | Room Ref.             | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| GROUND FLOOR |                       |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| G4.Do4       | G4THE HALL |  | 2040 x 940mm (overall opening) 2 no. leafs 2040 x 470 x 55mm Pair of 3 no. panel doors. Central panel is Georgian wired glazed, remaining panels are flush with beaded surrounds. Panels to G10 face of door previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Replace existing doors with new pair of 3 no. panel doors with mid panel glazed to match the existing arrangement. New doors are to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Doors to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. The meeting stile (1 no. leaf only) is to have a fire and smoke seal rebated into the edge. New doors to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |

| Door Ref.      | Room Ref.                | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| G10.Do1 | G10EAST STAIR |  | 2010 x 1200mm (overall opening) 2 no. leafs 2010 x 600 x 45mm Pair of 2 no panel doors. Upper panel is Georgian wired glazed, remaining panels are flush with beaded surrounds. Panels to G10 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Replace existing doors with new pair of 3 no. panel doors with mid panel glazed to match door G4.Do4 adjacent. New doors are to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Doors to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. The meeting stile (1 no. leaf only) is to have a fire and smoke seal rebated into the edge. New doors to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |

|         |                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---------|---------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| G12.Do3 | G12 BRUCE CASTLEGALLERY |  | 2100 x 1100mm (overall opening) 2 no. leafs 2100 x 550 x 50mm Pair of 3 panel doors. Panels are flat with beaded surround. Panels to G12 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). Unique opening mechanism installed to head of doors. | Replace existing doors with new pair of 3 no. panel doors with mid panel glazed to match door G4.Do4. Existing opening mechanism is to be removed and doors are to operate on standard hinges opening out into G13A (West Staircase). Existing door frame to be altered to accommodate new double doors with new hardwood planted stops fitted. The door linings are to be temporarily removed to allow for firestopping to the sides and head of the opening due to its position on a fire compartment line. Painted timber linings to be reinstated on completion and redecorated in a painted satinwood finish. New doors are to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Door leaf to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. The meeting stile (1 no. leaf only) is to have a fire and smoke seal rebated into the edge. New doors to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |
|---------|---------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|         |                     |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| G13.D01 | G13MAKERS SPACE |  | 2010 x 960 x 55mm 6 no. panel single door leaf, panels are flat with beaded surround. G13 face has been overboarded with a flush panel to full extent of door (assumed for fire). | Replace existing door with new 6 no. panelled door to match the existing arrangement. The door linings are to be temporarily removed to allow for firestopping to the sides and head of the opening due to its position on a fire compartment line. Painted timber linings to be reinstated on completion and redecorated in a painted satinwood finish. New door to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Door leaf to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. New doors to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |
|---------|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

7440 BRUCE CASTLE MUSEUM AND ARCHIVE
DOOR SCHEDULE – ASBESTOS REMOVAL WORKS February 2026 v1

| Door Ref.   | Room Ref.             | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                                                                    | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FIRST FLOOR |                       |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| F4.D01      | F4COMPTON GALLERY |  | 2030 x 960 x 55mm 6 no. panel raised and fielded single door leaf, altered to provide Georgian wired panels. Panels to F1 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Replace existing door with new 6 no. panelled door with mid panel glazed to match the existing arrangement. New door to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Door leaf to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. New door to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |

7440 BRUCE CASTLE MUSEUM AND ARCHIVE
DOOR SCHEDULE – ASBESTOS REMOVAL WORKS February 2026 v1

| Door Ref. | Room Ref.             | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                          | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| F4.Do2    | F4COMPTON GALLERY |  | 2180 x 960 x 45mm 6 no. panel raised and fielded single door leaf. Panels to F4 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Existing door to be temporarily removed from site to enable the asbestos panels to be removed from the room face. NOTE: A temporary fire blank door is to be installed in the opening whilst the door is off-site. Isolated repairs to the face of original panels behind to be undertaken. Panels to have intumescent card applied to the room face with intumescent paint finishes applied over. Redecorate existing door leaf in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. On removal of the asbestos panels, the condition of the joinery is to be reviewed. If found to be severely damaged/irreparable, then the door is to be replaced with new to match the existing arrangements. |

7440 BRUCE CASTLE MUSEUM AND ARCHIVE
DOOR SCHEDULE – ASBESTOS REMOVAL WORKS February 2026 v1

| Door Ref. | Room Ref.             | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                          | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| F4.Do3    | F4COMPTON GALLERY |  | 2180 x 950 x 55mm 6 no. panel raised and fielded single door leaf. Panels to F4 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Existing door to be temporarily removed from site to enable the asbestos panels to be removed from the room face. NOTE: A temporary fire blank door is to be installed in the opening whilst the door is off-site. Isolated repairs to the face of original panels behind to be undertaken. Panels to have intumescent card applied to the room face with intumescent paint finishes applied over. Redecorate existing door leaf in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. On removal of the asbestos panels, the condition of the joinery is to be reviewed. If found to be severely damaged/irreparable, then the door is to be replaced with new to match the existing arrangements. |

7440 BRUCE CASTLE MUSEUM AND ARCHIVE
DOOR SCHEDULE – ASBESTOS REMOVAL WORKS February 2026 v1

| Door Ref. | Room Ref.                | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                            | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| F15.Do3   | F15COLERAINE GALLERY |  | 1995 x 940 x 45mm6 no. panel raised and fielded single door leaf.Panels to F15 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Existing door to be temporarily removed from site to enable the asbestos panels to be removed from the room face.NOTE: A temporary fire blank door is to be installed in the opening whilst the door is off-site.Isolated repairs to the face of original panels behind to be undertaken. Panels to have intumescent card applied to the room face with intumescent paint finishes applied over.Redecorate existing door leaf in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing.On removal of the asbestos panels, the condition of the joinery is to be reviewed. If found to be severely damaged/irreparable, then the door is to be replaced with new to match the existing arrangements. |

| Door Ref. | Room Ref.            | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                                                                                          | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| F16.Do1   | F16STAFF KITCHEN |  | 1860 x 730 x 45mm 4 no. panel single door leaf. Georgian wired glazing to upper panels. Lower panels are flat with bead surround. Panels to F16 face have been previously upgraded (assumed for fire). | Replace existing door with new 4 no. panelled door with upper panels glazed to match the existing arrangement. New door to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Door leaf to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. New door to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |

| Door Ref.           | Room Ref.                                      | Image                                                                             | Description (including dimensions)                                                                                                                                                    | Proposed Works                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| SECOND FLOOR |                                                |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| S6.Do1       | S6CENTRAL SOUTHROOF RANGE STORE |  | 1930 x 840 x 45mm 4 no. panel single door leaf with square shoulders. S6 face has been overboarded with a flush panel to full extent of door (assumed for fire). | Replace existing door with new 6 no. panelled door to match the existing arrangement. New door to provide 30min FR (aspirational). Intumescent card is to be applied to the panels to the room face (due to their nominal thickness) and with an intumescent paint finish applied both sides. Door leaf to be fitted with new fire and smoke seals rebated into the sides and to the head. New doors to be decorated in a painted satinwood finish both sides to match existing. |