

This is the main tree. You can see the tree to the left has been pollarded, and you can see from the tree in question the points it has been pollarded to previously.

The other trees where we are aiming to simply cut down the overhang into our garden are:

