

Background and borders all white/obscured glass- some of these glass pictures were taken in our shop window so they reflect our view and light. The others are from stock photos from our suppliers website. Colours and textures will be similarly placed across the whole project. These aren't an exact representation, enough however to give the idea of placements and textures.

