

The left image shows the outline 246 Park Road viewed from 1st floor at 248 Park Road. The redlines are drawn to scale and indicate proposed ground floor infill extension (already permitted) and the 1st floor extension proposed in this application. The right image shows the significant encroachment of proposed development, which is very visually intrusive and hem in my bedrooms and garden.