

It's difficult for me to show the branches I would like removed but I have marked up the photo below. I realise those are not necessarily the areas you would cut back from but the main issues is the tree is now so big is blocking out light in most of my garden and completely in my neighbours garden. He only has the end part of the garden. There also seems to be some dead branches.

