

K. Comparisons to the Great Wall at Hampstead Garden Suburb

Comparison of Rookfield with the Great Wall at Hampstead Garden Suburb

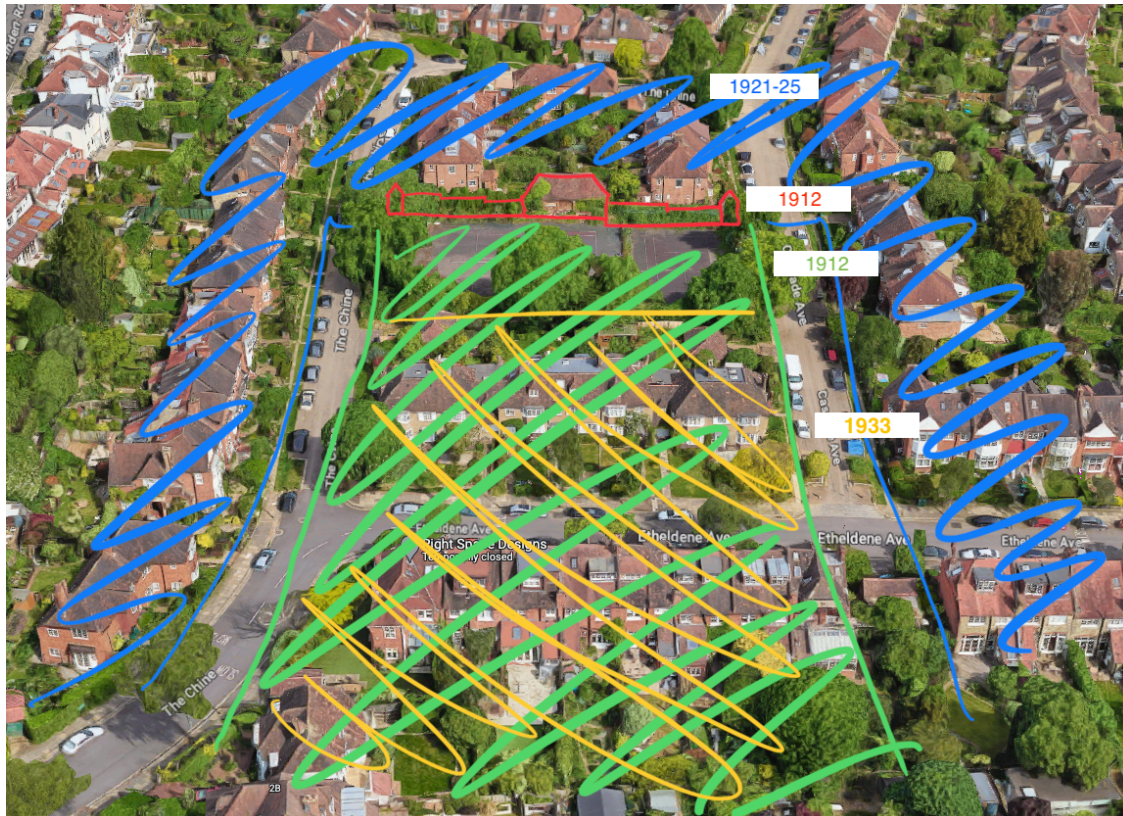

1. The Great Wall at Hampstead Garden Suburb. Not completed due to WWII. The arrangement Open space → Wall feature → Built Residential Form is highlighted.

Key:

- Built form
- Feature comprising wall, gazebos, pavillion
- Planned open space
- Subsequently built (1936)

2. Plan from 1909 showing HGS and the Great Wall. The arrangement Open space → Wall feature → Built Residential Form is highlighted.

3. Rookfield tennis courts. The arrangement Open space → Wall feature → Built Residential Form is highlighted. The 'mini-Great Wall'.

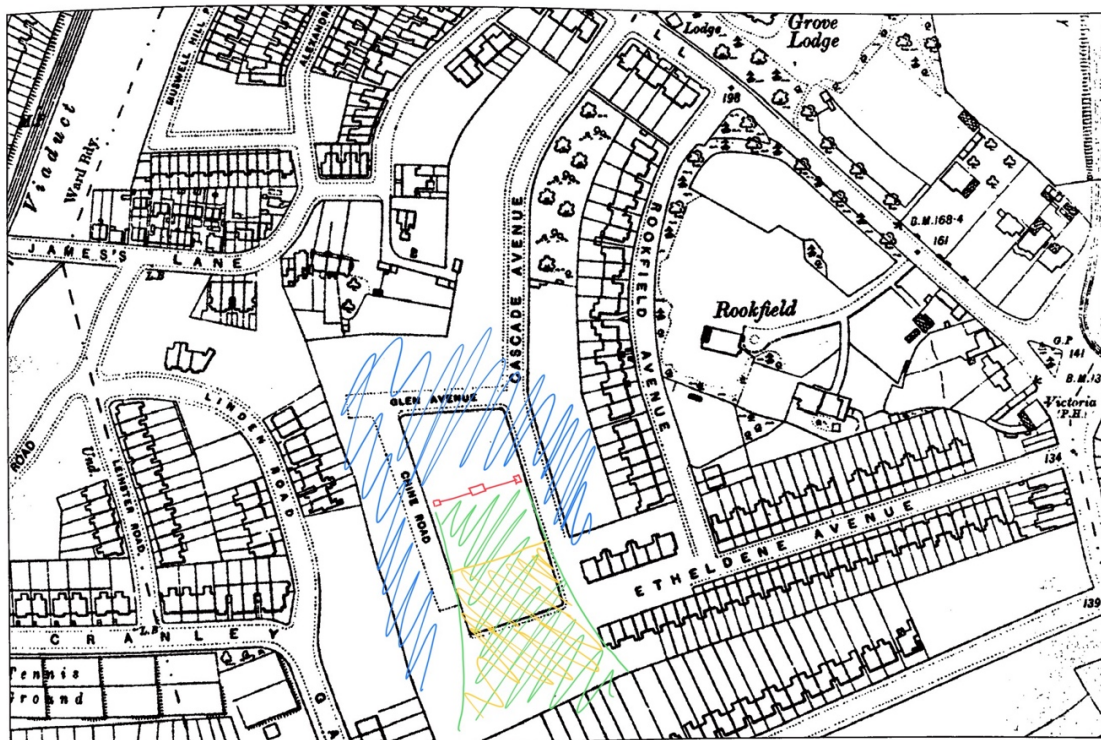

Fig. 3.14 Extract of 1913 Ordnance Survey Map showing the Rookfield Estate in 1912.

4. Plan of Rookfield Estate in 1912. The arrangement Open space → Wall feature → Built Residential Form is highlighted.

5. The Great Wall looking east (TBC)

42 The 'Great Wall' defining the boundary of the Suburb with the Heath Extension. Drawn by C.P. Wade, this view shows the gazebos and gateways, with a distant view of the spire of St Jude's.

6. The 'Great Wall' from Hampstead Garden Suburb: Arts and Crafts Utopia? by Mervyn Miller

7. The 'mini-Great Wall' at Rookfield, from Savills marketing photos supplied in the application ref: HGY/2023/0733

